EXPLANATION OF THE CATALOGUE.

This catalogue, in consequence of various unavoidable difficulties, contains a number of errors, but it is believed not so many nor so great as to materially diminish its convenience.

It contains the titles of nearly 21,000 volumes, being all, except a few of the thus far made part of the Library.

The entries are arranged in a single consecutive alphabet.

It is intended that any one who can remember either the name of the author of the book desired, or the title of the book (if it has a special title, such as novels, for instance always have), or the subject of the book, shall be able to find it under one or the other of these heads. Often it will be under all of them.

For instance, a reader who desires Mochler's "Symbolism," and who can remember the author's name, will find the book under letter M, at Mochler. If he only remembers the title, he can turn to it under letter S, at Symbolism. If he forgets both these, he happens to remember that the book is something about creeds, he will find it entered under letter C, at Creeds. And lastly, if he only remembers that it is a Roman Catholic work, he will still find it under letter R, at Roman Catholic books. And as the sh

ERRATA FOR THE CATALOGUE OF NOV., 1880.

The following corrections may be entered, if desired, instead of the shelf numbers now printed, at their places in the Catalogue of Nov., 1880. The errors arose from the nature of the work on the "Electric Pen Catalogue," and from the speed with which it was necessary to prepare from it the Catalogue of Nov., 1880.

Wherever necessary, one correction appears two or three times over, being entered under author, title and subject.

The fiction, juvenile books and books in other languages than English, are all re-catalogued together in the Catalogue of June, 1882, and they should not be looked for in the Catalogue of Nov., 1880.

THE CATALOGUE.

The present catalogue contains, in the first and principal one of its eight lists, the titles of about 6,000 volumes added to the library since November, 1880.

For public convenience have been prepared the separate lists numbered from 2 to 8, instead of mixing all the titles in a single alphabet (as in the catalogue of Nov., 1880,) along with list No. 1; and in these seven lists have been included, not merely books added since Nov., 1880, but all in the library, so that any one wishing to see all the novels, all the juveniles, or all the books which the library possesses in German, in French, etc., can quickly do so.

An edition of the lists in foreign languages has been struck off separately. Some copies of the catalogue of 1880 in sheets have also now been bound up, and the library can now therefore supply catalogues as follows:

- 1.—The catalogues of Nov., 1880, and of June, 1882, bound in one volume, forming a complete catalogue of the library to date.
- 2.—The new catalogue of June, 1882, separate.
- 3.—The lists of books in foreign languages, a pamphlet in paper cover.

The present catalogue has been prepared on the same general plan with that of Nov., 1880, viz.: by a single alphabet, including authors' names, titles, and subjects; so that any one who can remember either who wrote the book desired, or what the title of it is, or what it is about, can find by the catalogue whether this library has it. The entries for this catalogue have been compared with the books themselves on the shelves, and it is therefore probable that the catalogue is more correct than that of 1880, which could not be so compared.

INFORMATION FOR THOSE USING THE LIBRARY.

1. SPECIAL CAUTIONS TO SAVE TROUBLE.—Do not lose your door check, nor lay it down. Keep it in your hand, or in your pocket. If laid down it is likely to be stolen, and in dishonest hands it enables a book to be stolen.

Beware of thieves. Hats, Purses, Books, and door checks, left lying about, will probably be stolen.

In using buff slips, write on the slip the same name and address as on the card you use, and no other.

Never put your borrower's card into a book; you will lose it.

Remember that when a book is delivered to you it shall be considered to be in perfect condition; if there are any marks, imperfections or mutilations it is your duty to report the same to the Librarian. otherwise it will be charged to your account.

Neglect of these cautions will cause much inconvenience.

2. REGULATIONS.—1. The Library will be open on all secular days from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M., and on Sundays from 1 P. M. to 9 P. M., except the legal holidays, and unless closed by action of the Trustees.

2. All residents of the city of San Francisco, above the age of twelve years, may borrow books upon conditions specified in these regulations.

3. Any such resident upon making proper application, and furnishing an acceptable guarantor, will receive a borrower's card, entitling the owner to the privileges of the Library. Blanks for such purpose may be obtained in the Library. Applications duly completed may be given to the Secretary, and after the lapse of two or more days the applicant will, if approved, receive a borrower's card upon asking therefor.

4. A book may be obtained either for use in the Library, or for use at home.

For home use the borrower must take a buff book-slip (to be found in the boxes at the rail); must write on the slip the same name and address as on the borrower's card; enter the shelf number of the desired book in the column at the right hand of the slip; and hand in slip and card together at the desk.

For use in the Library, write the borrower's name and address on a PINK SLIP, and hand in slip and door check together.

5. Borrowers must ascertain from the Catalogues, and not from the Assistants in the Library, the class number of the book desired.

6. A borrower may retain a book for two weeks, but no longer, unless renewed. By applying before the book is due, it may be renewed for a second two weeks from date of such presenting; but cannot be renewed a third time. For each day in excess of two weeks, or four weeks if renewed, that the book is kept, a fine of five cents will be exacted. Any borrower who shall refuse to pay such fine, or who shall deface or mutilate any book, will be excluded from the privileges of the Library.

7. Any book renewed must be returned to the Library at the end of renewal, and must remain there at least one Library day, before the same person may take it out again.

8. Borrowers must not loan books taken from the Library.
9. Borrowers must not exchange books with each other for return; but each book must be returned upon the same card upon which it was taken out.
10. Cards must not be transferred for use to any person outside of the immediate household of the owner.
11. Encyclopedias, Dictionaries, and other books needed for reference in the Library; books not easily replaced in consequence of their rarity or value; books given expressly for reference only; books deemed by the Trustees unsuited for general circulation; and unbound periodicals, shall be used only in the Library. They cannot be obtained upon a borrower's card, but may be upon a green slip.
12. Professional medical books must be issued only to medical men and students duly certified as such, except in the discretion of the Librarian.
13. Borrowers who have been refused a book under the rules may appeal to the Trustees; and such appeal may be taken upon any matter connected with the administration of the Library.
14. If a book belonging to a set shall be lost or injured, the book itself must be replaced, or the remainder of the set must be taken and paid for by the borrower.
15. Visitors must, in all cases, whether they have borrowers' cards or not, take an admittance card from the doorkeeper, and return it to him upon departing.

[NOTE.—No admittance card is needed by persons using the newspaper gallery.]

16. If a borrower's card be lost, a duplicate may be issued upon a new application, endorsed by the same or another guarantor, and after two weeks from the time of giving notice to the Secretary of the loss. This delay is to allow time for the recovery of the lost card.
17. A guarantor is understood to guarantee the card issued on the faith of his promise; and he is liable on his guarantee for all use made of the card guaranteed, until the return and cancellation of such card.
18. No person other than an officer or employé can be admitted to the shelves, or behind the Library railing, unless by express vote of the Trustees, or invited by some officer of the Library.
19. Change of residence must be at once notified to the Secretary at the Library.
20. Cards must be surrendered at the Library when their holders cease to be residents of San Francisco.
21. Borrowers finding any book or periodical written on, defaced or mutilated, are expected to report the fact to the Librarian; and borrowers' cards found when mislaid in books, or when lost in the Library, or elsewhere, should be returned without fail at the Library.

22. Ink must not be used in the reading-room.
23. Writing or marking on Library books, even for correcting mistakes of the press, is absolutely forbidden, and is liable to the penalties of the Code, as elsewhere quoted.
24. The Library being frequented by ladies and gentlemen, suitable good manners are required of all who enter it. Conversation above a whisper, smoking, wearing of hats, and all conduct inconsistent with quiet, decorum and politeness, are strictly forbidden.
25. Complaints about the service of the Library should be made to the Librarian, immediately after the occurrence of cause of complaint; and if in writing, should be signed with the writer's name and address. Anonymous communications are seldom of any use.

26. There is no obligation to send notice of fines; and failure to receive notice is no excuse from paying.

3. INFORMATION FOR BORROWERS.—MALICIOUS INJURIES TO BOOKS A FELONY.—Attention is directed to Section 623 of the Penal Code, viz:

"And every person who maliciously cuts, tears, defaces, breaks or injures any book, map, chart, picture, engraving, statue, coin, medal, apparatus, or other work of literature, art or mechanics, or object of curiosity, deposited in any public library, gallery, museum, collection, fair or exhibition, is guilty of felony."

And the Trustees offer a reward of Fifty Dollars for the detection and conviction of any person mutilating any book, periodical, pamphlet or journal belonging to this Library.

RECOMMENDING BOOKS FOR THE LIBRARY. Any one desiring to have added to the Library any book or books not in it, may give or send the title of such to the Librarian, making the same as accurate as possible, and giving, if known, the author's name, title of book, publisher's name and price. As far as circumstances admit, books recommended will be procured, and upon their arrival the persons thus recommending them will be notified.

EXPLANATION OF THE FIGURES OR SHELF MARKS. 1. The Figures.—Those figures in the catalogue which are to be written on the borrower's card when applying for a book, are always divided into two sets by a dot, thus: 821.282. Those at the left of the dot show the section to which the volume belongs, while those at the right show the number of the book in that section. Thus, the entry "MORRIS, L. Epic of Hades. 821.282," means that this book is the 282d book in the 821st section, which is English poetry.

2. The Section.—The SECTIONS referred to by the figures at the left of the dots as above, are about 1,000 in number. They are collected by tens into 100 DIVISIONS, and these again by tens into ten CLASSES, namely: General Reference; Philosophy; Theology; Sociology; Philology; Natural Science; Useful Arts; Fine Arts; Literature; History.

FORMALITIES IN ISSUING BOOKS.—The precautions of the Library in issuing books are sometimes thought excessive and oppressive. Even ladies and gentlemen of intelligence, culture and position, instead of acquiescing in such regulations, sometimes resist them with more energy than intelligence.

In order to understand these precautions, the following points should be remembered:

First.—The more the Library is used, the more credit will its managers have. Thus they will naturally desire, and they do in fact desire, to make as little trouble as possible for readers.

Second.—The Trustees are responsible to the citizens of San Francisco for the protection of the books in the Library from any loss and damage that can be avoided.

Third.—In proportion as the circulation is larger, more care has to be taken in keeping track of each single book.

Fourth.—This Library is open very freely and liberally to persons of all conditions in life—young and old, good and bad, learned and ignorant. Thus its books are particularly exposed to carelessness, abuse and theft.

In arranging the mode of delivering and returning books, these considerations have been taken into account, and as few formalities have been required as the safety of the property of the city permits; and the object in view has been to preserve the books from spoliation, theft, destruction, and injury by the careless and vicious, for the greatest possible benefit of the greatest possible number of well-disposed readers and students.

CATALOGUE.

Note.—In the following catalogue, D in the shelf-mark at the right hand of a title means that the book was bought with money given to the library by John P. Dunn, Esq., while City Auditor, in 1880-1. In like manner, S means that the book was bought with money given by Adolph Sutro, Esq. An R means that the book is a reference book, and can either not be taken out at all, or only under special conditions.

This catalogue contains: First, the titles of about 16,000 volumes, added to the Library since the issue of the catalogue of June, 1882; second, a revised catalogue of all the English fiction and juveniles in the Library; and third, a considerable number of entries of separate works previously only catalogued by their collective name. Among these are Pinkerton's Voyages, the Harleian Miscellany, an English collection called the Pamphleteer, which includes reprints of a large number of pamphlets on English current affairs during the first quarter of this century; the publications of the Smithsonian Institute, and a number of the United States public documents.

The collection of U. S. public documents is now of very considerable extent and value, having been largely increased in consequence of the attentive kindness of Gen. W. S. Rosecrans and others of the California delegation in Congress, and of the liberality with which the authorities at Washington have responded to their suggestions.

To ascertain whether any given book is in the Library, it will now be necessary to examine three volumes, viz.: 1, The volume containing the two catalogues of 1880 and 1882; 2, the volume containing this catalogue; and (for fiction) the separate volume including the titles of novels and juveniles. Whenever an additional catalogue shall become necessary, it will probably be thought best to consolidate these separate lists into one.

To save trouble to persons using the Library, a few special suggestions are added:

In drawing a volume of an encyclopædia, add to the entry made on the slip, the designation of the initial letter of the work to be looked for, thus: "Encyclopædia Britannica, Letter H."

In drawing a volume of a periodical, set down the number of the set as given in the catalogue, and add the designation of the volume, or (if that is not known) of the year required.

Many fines would be saved, if persons desiring a book for a second term would send a postal to the Library on the day before the book falls due, with a notice, giving shelf mark and date of taking the book, on the following model: "Please renew book 808.253, taken out Apr. 15th."

SPECIAL CAUTIONS TO SAVE TROUBLE.

Do not lose your door check, nor lay it down. Keep it in your hand, or in your pocket. If laid down it is likely to be stolen, and in dishonest hands it may allow a book to be stolen.

Beware of thieves. Hats, Purses, Books, and Door Checks, left lying about, will probably be stolen.

In using buff slips, write on the slip the same name and address as on the card you use, and no other.

Never put your borrower's card into a book; you will lose it.

Return your book on the same card on which it was taken out; not on another card in the same family, nor on any other card.

Remember that when a book is delivered to you it shall be considered to be in perfect condition; if there are any marks, imperfections or mutilations, it is your duty to report the same to the Librarian, otherwise it will be charged to your account.

REGULATIONS.

1. The Library will be open on all secular days from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M., and on Sundays from 1 P. M. to 5 P. M., except the legal holidays and the eves of Christmas and New Year's, and unless closed by action of the Trustees.

2. All residents of the City and County of San Francisco above the age of twelve years, and all tax-payers of said city and county, may borrow books upon conditions specified in these regulations.

3. Any such resident or tax-payer, upon making proper application and furnishing an acceptable guarantor, will receive a borrower's card, entitling the owner to the privileges of the Library. Blanks for such purpose may be obtained in the Library. Applications duly completed may be given to the Secretary, and after the lapse of two or more days the applicant will, if approved, receive a borrower's card upon asking therefor.

Persons who cannot otherwise use the Library, or who require some book not usually circulated, may borrow books upon depositing with the Librarian the full value of each book taken; such persons not to be more than five in number at any one time, and a full record of such deposits and the returns of the same to be kept by the Librarian.

4. One book at a time may be obtained, either for use in the Library or for use at home.

Where the connection of two volumes of one work makes the use of both necessary, such two volumes may be issued together on one borrower's card; the words "two volumes" to be plainly written on the slip in such cases.

For home use the borrower must take a buff book-slip (to be found in the boxes on the tables or at the rail), must write on the slip the same name and address as on the borrower's card; enter the shelf number of the desired book in the column at the right hand of the slip; and hand in slip and card together at the desk.

For use in the Library, write as above on a pink slip, and hand in the slip alone; and if the book is delivered, then hand in the door check.

5. Borrowers must ascertain from the Catalogues, and not from the Assistants in the Library, the shelf number of the book desired.

6. A borrower may retain a book for two weeks, but no longer, unless renewed. By applying in person or by mail, before the book is due, it may be renewed for a second two weeks from date of such presenting; but cannot be renewed a second time. For each day in excess of two weeks, or four weeks if renewed, that the book is kept, a fine of five cents will be exacted. If a book is not returned, or a fine not paid, within ten days after due, the guarantor will be called upon to pay such fine, or the value of such book. Any borrower who shall refuse to pay such fine, or who shall deface or mutilate any book, will be excluded from the privileges of the Library.

7. Any book renewed must be returned to the Library at end of renewal, and must remain there at least one Library day before the same person may take it out again.

8. Borrowers must not loan books taken from the Library.

9. Borrowers must not exchange books with each other for return; but each book must be returned upon the same card on which it was taken out.

10. Cards must not be transferred for use to any person outside of the immediate household of the owner.

11. Encyclopedias, Dictionaries, and other books needed for reference in the Library; books not easily replaced in consequence of their rarity or value; books given expressly for reference only; books deemed by the Trustees unsuited for general circulation; and unbound periodicals—shall be used only in the Library. They cannot be obtained upon a borrower's card, but may be upon a pink slip.

12. Professional medical books must be issued only to medical men and students duly certified as such, except in the discretion of the Librarian.

13. Borrowers who have been refused a book under the rules may appeal to the Trustees; and such appeal may be taken upon any matter connected with the administration of the Library.

14. If a book belonging to a set shall be lost or injured, the book itself must be replaced, or the remainder of the set must be taken and paid for by the borrower.

15. Visitors must, in all cases, whether they have borrowers' cards or not, take an admittance card (a door check) from the door-keeper and return it to him upon departing. This door check must be kept safe, and must not be laid down on the tables or in the Library.

16. If a borrower's card be lost, a duplicate may be issued upon a new application, endorsed by the same or another guarantor, and after two weeks from the time of giving notice to the Secretary of the loss. This delay is to allow time for the recovery of the lost card. If a duplicate card be lost, three months must pass after notice to the Library before a triplicate card can be issued.

17. A guarantor is understood to guarantee the card issued on the faith of his promise, and he is liable on his guarantee for all use made of the card guaranteed, until the return and cancellation of such card.

18. No person other than an officer or employé can be admitted to the shelves, or behind the Library railing, unless by express vote of the Trustees, or invited by the Secretary, or by the Librarian.

19. Change of residence must be at once notified to the Secretary at the Library.

20. Cards must be surrendered at the Library when their holders cease to be residents or taxpayers of San Francisco. Cards may be withdrawn at any time.

21. Borrowers finding any book or periodical written on, defaced, or mutilated, are expected to report the fact to the Librarian; and borrowers' cards found when mislaid in books, or when lost in the Library, or elsewhere, should be returned without fail at the Library.

22. Ink must not be used in the reading-room.

23. Writing or marking on Library books, even for correcting mistakes of the press, is absolutely forbidden, and is liable to the penalties of the Code, as elsewhere quoted.

24. The Library being frequented by ladies and gentlemen, suitable good manners are required of all who enter it. Conversation above a whisper, eating, smoking, wearing of hats, and all conduct inconsistent with quiet, decorum, and politeness, are strictly forbidden. The Librarian will strictly enforce this rule.

25. Gentlemen will not be allowed, for any reason whatever, within the space railled off near the door for ladies.

26. Complaints about the service of the Library should be made to the Librarian immediately after the occurrence of cause of complaint; and if in writing should be signed with the writer's name and address. Complaints to other employés of the Library are a useless annoyance, and anonymous communications are seldom of any use.

27. There is no obligation to send notice of fines; and failure to receive notice is no excuse from paying.

MALICIOUS INJURY TO BOOKS A FELONY.—Attention is directed to Sec. 623 of the Penal Code, viz.:

"And every person who maliciously cuts, tears, defaces, breaks, or injures any book, map, chart, picture, engraving, statue, coin, medal, apparatus, or other work of literature, art, or mechanics, or object of curiosity deposited in any public library, gallery, museum, collection, fair, or exhibition, is guilty of felony."

And the Trustees offer a reward of Fifty Dollars for the detection and conviction of any person mutilating any book, periodical, pamphlet, or journal belonging to this Library.

EXPLANATION OF THE CATALOGUE FIGURES OR SHELF MARKS.—1. The Figures. Those figures in the catalogue which are to be written on the borrower's card when applying for a book are always divided into two sets by a dot, thus: 821.282. Those at the left of the dot show the section to which the volume belongs, while those at the right show the number of the book in that section. Thus, the entry "Morris, L., Epic of Hades, 821.282," means that this book is the 282d book in the 821st section, which is English poetry.

2. The System. The sections referred to by the figures at the left of the dots as above are about 1000 in number. They are collected by tens into 100 divisions, and these again by tens into ten classes, namely: General Reference; Philosophy; Theology; Sociology; Philology; Natural Science; Useful Arts; Fine Arts; Literature; History.
